For the prevention and cure of
BILIOUS and MALIGNANT FEVERS
Hahn's ANTI-BILIOUS PILLS
THIS Medicine has been attended with a degree of success highly gratifying to the inventor's feelings in several parts of the West Indies and in the Southern and Middle States, &c.

The testimony of a number of persons can be adduced, who have reason to believe that a timely use of this salutary remedy has, under Providence, preserved their lives when in the most alarming circumstances.

Facts of this conclusive nature speak more in favour of a medicine than can be shown by any other means. It is not indeed presumptuously proposed as an infallible cure, but the inventor has every possible reason to believe that a timely use of this salutary remedy has, under Providence, preserved their lives when in the most alarming circumstances.

The operation of these pills is perfectly mild, so as to be used with safety by persons in every situation and of every age.
They are excellently adapted to clear off superfluous bile and prevent its morbid secretions—to restore and amend the appetite—to produce a free perspiration and thereby prevent colds which are often of fatal consequences. A dose never fails to remove a cold taken on its appearance: they are celebrated for removing habitual costiveness—relieving the stomach and severe head-ache—ought to be taken by all persons on change of climate.

They have been found remarkably effectual in preventing and curing diseases attendant on long voyages, and should be procured and carefully prepared for use by every seaman.

Hamilton's Elixir.
A sovereign remedy for colds, obstinate coughs, asthma, sore throats, croup, and approaching consumptions.
To persons who have children afflicted with the HOOPING COUGH, this elixir is of the first magnitude, as it cures immediate relief, checks the progress, and in a short time entirely removes the most cruel disorders to which children are liable. The Elixir is perfectly agreeable, and the dose so small that no difficulty arises in taking it.

Hamilton's Grand Restorative.
Is recommended as an invaluable medicine for the speedy relief and permanent cure of Nervous Disorders, Violent cramps Consumptions, the stomach
Lowness of spirits, back
Loss of appetite, Indigestion
Impurity of blood, Melancholy Hysterical affection, Gout in the limbs, Weakness, Pains in the limbs, and debility, Relaxations, &c.

Hamilton's Essence and Extract Mustard.
A safe and effectual remedy for accidents, chronic rheumatism, gout, rheumatism, palsy, lumbago, numbness, swellings, chilblains, sprains, bruises, in the face and neck, &c. &c.

Lee's Ointment for the Itch.
Warranted an infallible remedy at application, may be used with perfect safety by pregnant women, or on infant a week old, not containing a particle of mercury or any dangerous ingredient, and not accompanied with the tormenting smart which attends the application of other remedies.

Hahn's true & genuine German Plaster.
An infallible remedy for corns, specially removing them root and branch, without giving any pain.

The Genuine Persian Lotion.
So celebrated among the fashionable throughout Europe, is an invaluable medicament, perfectly innocent and safe, from corrosive and repellent minerals, the basis of other lotions, and of paralleled efficacy in removing blemishes of the face and skin, freckles, pimples, inflammatory redness, scurfs, tetter, worms, sunburns, prickly heat, &c.

Hahn's genuine Eye Water.
A sovereign remedy for all diseases of the eyes, whether the effect of accident or of disease.

Tooth Ache Drops.
The only remedy yet discovered gives immediate and lasting relief in the most severe instances.

Lee's Infallible Ague and Fever Remedy.
For the cure of agues, remittent intermittent fevers.

At the place of sale pump may be had gratis, describing cures formed by the above medicines; the importance and respectability of which, fully justify every article of advertisement.

Fan-Sash Making.
METAL FAN-SASHES, of various descriptions, will be made by the subscriber, at his shop, lower end of Duke street. The want of a Metal Fan-Sash Manufacture in Alexandria, has hitherto been severely felt by builders and others, who have been compelled to make use of wood, which is neither elegant nor durable. The various forms into which the metal can be shaped have given it a decided superiority, and the difference in the price is very trifling. The subscriber has been at considerable expence in procuring the necessary preparations, and relies on public enterprise for success in the undertaking.
Gentlemen in the country, by sending the dimensions of their sashes, can have them made at the same price as if in town.

will assume the title of Universal History Americanised; Or, an historical view of Europe, Asia, Africa and America, the state of society, literature, religion, that it were happy for us if all great works were reduced to their quintessence."

Sir William Jones.
PROSPECTUS.
ASTA.
The Asiatic part of this work contains a general view of the antediluvians—at the general deluge—of the re-settlement of the Globe after that great event—of the primitive postdiluvian nations which were formed in Asia, the cradle of the world. Their various ramifications, revolutions, and of the general course of Empire.

AFRICA.
The African part, contains a concise history of Egypt, Carthage, Numidia, Mauritania, Abyssinia, of the Principal States, and the Hottentots, with a grouped view of its uncivilized settlements.

EUROPE.
The European part, contains the history of Greece and Rome, from their origins to their dissolution—of the various nations which were conquered by them—and of the nations by which the Romans themselves were finally conquered, and of the nations which were formed from the fragments of the Roman Empire, and the various revolutions of the latter, together with a view of the nations which never were subjected to the Romans.

AMERICA.
The American part, contains a general history of the Western continent, under the heads of Prea, European, and Aboriginal or unconquered America. The first contains a history of the United States, from their first settlement as English Colonies, till the present time.—
The second, of all parts dependant on Europe.—And the third, of all that are still owned by the Aborigines.

It is expected that the whole will be comprised in 10 or 12 octavo volumes; of between four and five hundred pages each—to be printed in Philadelphia, on good paper and fair types, for $3 1-3 per volume, in sheep binding, or $4 1-3 Call Gilt, to be paid for on delivery.

AUTHORITIES.
This work has been in contemplation upwards of 40 years. The project of it was conceived in 1786, on reading the Universal History, then recently edited in 60 volumes, by a society of gentlemen in England. The original idea of extracting the quintessence of that voluminous work, which contained the most complete system of history the world had then seen, has ever since been enlarging and improving by an attentive perusal of the histories written by Robertson, Hume, Gibbon, and other modern authors—of the Asiatic researches—of the works of Sir William Jones, and other learned Orientalists—the publications of intelligent travellers, who, in the course of the last half century have explored almost every region of the Globe. These collectively have thrown a blaze of light on countries comparatively unknown, and on portions, both of ancient and modern history which were confused and obscure at the period when the writers of the Universal History published their work. The arrangement of materials collected from these sources commenced in the year 1780, when, in consequence of the surrender of Charleston to Sir Henry Clinton, the author was suddenly released from a sea of business and sent as a prisoner of war to the British Garrison then in St. Augustine, and there confined for eleven months, without any peculiar employment. Steady progress has been made for the last ten years in correcting and transcribing the work for publication.

UNITED STATES.
The History of the United States is given at full length—that of foreign countries is more or less expended or contracted in proportion to the intrinsic importance of each—its tendency to illustrate portions of Holy Writ—the Greek and Latin Classics—and also in proportion to its connexion with the U. States, or as furnishing useful practical information to its citizens, or as the paternal soil of their ancestors.

The above sketch of the nature and objects of this immense work, which has occupied the attention of the Author for upwards of 40 years, was found among his papers, and is now given to the public in his own words. Since that period, a few chapters have been added by the Reverend SAMUEL STANFORD SMITH, which brings it down to the close of the last war.

The publication commences with a third impression of the History of the U.
States, in three volumes, which is all that has ever appeared. The whole will not be delivered under 15 or 20 months: It is proper to state, that the gentleman who have the direction of it are neither booksellers nor printers, and receive no pecuniary consideration for their trouble —but are willing to make the necessary advances to carry it into execution, provided the sale is warranted by public patronage. The profits arising are to be appropriated for the support and education of his children, four of each sex: to them its success is a matter of deep importance.

LEAVING OFF DRINKING.
A neighbor once, a real friend,
Besought Tom Tiddymore his life to mend;
Asserting 'twas by all declared
The shamesaid Tom drank much too hard:
"Too hard," cries Tom, "That I deny;
None drank more easily than I.
But since of late I've understood,
That habit does more hurt than good,
Costs money, makes the neighbors scoff—
In fact I've entirely left it off;
And if you doubt that I have done,
At once I'll prove it by my son."
The boy was call'd; and told in language civil,
To speak plain honest truth, and shame the devil.
"I would," quoth boy, "tell truth without this warning—Think ye, I'd lie—I'd break my neck first:
Father left off this very morning
Three times before he eat his breakfast."

FOR THE ALEXANDRIA GAZETTE.

Mr. Editor,
While the social and political compact, guarantee to the citizens in general, equal political, religious and civil rights, yet, custom seems to have transferred to the gentlemen of the bar a kind of prerogative in the latitude of debate, which is too often carried to an extent highly wounding to the feelings of the citizen, and totally inconsistent with decency or truth. In this dilemma the injured party has his recourse either to the court—the law—or the palladium of his rights and his liberty, the press. In recurring to the court, he labors under all the difficulties and inconveniences arising from diffidence—in recurring to the law, its process is tedious and can afford no adequate relief for injured feelings—but in recurring to the press, he recurs to the hearts and feelings of his fellow citizens, whose voice is the voice of justice—whose feelings are the offspring of benevolence. Hence will account for the reasons which induce me to resort to your useful paper.

It is a generally received maxim, that while the body of the peaceable citizen who in the court, is under the protection of the law, that his feelings are equally so—it then, this axiom is well founded, and of which I can have but little doubt, I am necessarily led to make some remarks respecting the conduct and assertions of one of the gentlemen of the bar, at the last term. At an early period in the judicial proceedings of the court, the merits and demerits of certain sealed votes touching an election for Directors in a bank in this city were discussed before the court, and among the number were two made and executed by the same person. One of the defendants, in the exercise of an unalienable right, that of defending himself through counsel, (being put upon his defence) did object to one of these votes (the last) upon the plea of its being illegally executed. In making this objection, it did not require the possession of uncommon sense or legal knowledge to discern, that under the authority which enabled the stockholder to make the vote, he had a right to revoke it, provided the subsequent one was legally executed; but on the contrary, if defective in its execution, while the previous one was perfect, then, of consequence the subsequent vote being illegal, the previous one stood good.

To this objection, buttressed as I then conceived, and still conceive, not only upon reason and justice but upon law, the defendant was told by one of the bar, that "no man possessed of common sense would urge such an objection"—and at another time he declared, that the same person had committed a "moral fraud." Surely if the gentleman had stated the truth in his first declaration, charity ought to have sealed his lips as regards the second; for who would hold the poor unfortunate wretch amenable for moral acts, who was destitute of common sense? But I fear his organs of perception, like his optics, are defective; for he was ready to make oath that he saw a gentleman at the judges office on a certain day, when at the same time, this same gentleman was willing to depose, that so far from being at the judges office on that day, or any other day, he knew not that he kept one! I think the gentleman is in a fair way to lay the foundation of an imperishable fame with the good people of Alexandria. His moral examples—his correct assertions—his well-established actions—are like the sure and steady effects of time, humbling the proud, convincing the obstinate, and enlightening the ignorant. While he is perfecting our morals and enlightening our minds, I trust he will more frequently recur to his opera glass, to enable him to distinguish with more precision the objects of his love. Looking up to him as we do, as the oracle of wisdom, learning and great morality, his faithful and humble subjects cannot but feel mortified at his defective vision; (saying nothing about his unsubstantial assertion) but as nature is now putting forth all her riches, beauty and power, they trust, that in the general distribution of her favors, that he will not only receive from her hands that renovating touch, which will remove the film from his eyes, that has tended so much to mortify his friends by producing such gross mistakes, but will give to his person, that exquisite model which will enable him to vie with Adonis.

We are told by the gentleman, that in his next essay, he will make our sins so manifest and so manifold, that to hide our shame, we will invoke the Deity to cover us with the "mountains and the rocks." A heavy covering this. Our notions lead us to believe, that the prayers of the wicked will not prevail with the righteous judge, and that we shall therefore have to bear the shame while we shall escape the rugged mantle of nature, which he thinks we shall solicit to cover our misdeeds; but as he is one of the good and pious, we would advise his keeping out of the way of our sinners, for fear, that if there should be this great communion, that a fragment might perchance light upon the sheep as well as the goats.

If the gentleman makes the "mountains and the rocks" his tutelary deity to cover his shame, we beg to be excused from resorting to such a measure—being old fashioned in our opinions, we know—we worship and we adore but one Deity, and that Deity is not the "mountains and the rocks."

Not doubting, but that the learned gentleman will make further discoveries, touching our immoral deeds, I shall abstain for the present from any further remarks, holding them in reserve for his future discoveries in the moral law; and being a plain unlettered man, I shall only offer plain matters of fact in support of what I aver.

COMMON SENSE.

The descendants of Luther.—It is always an object of curiosity to know what becomes of remarkable men. A Nuremberg paper gives the following information respecting the family of Luther. Luther himself though he married, as is known, a Nun, died without posterity. His brother who remained in the village of Mocr, in Saxony, where he was born, left several sons, one of whom there still exists two descendants. The wife of the first lives in a hamlet with her son, who is epileptic. She and her husband are in the greatest distress. The other is engaged in rustic occupations in another hamlet.

The ladies in the vicinity of Birmingham.—The late aged and venerable Dutton, who has been styled the British Franklin, in the Narrative of his own life, written by himself, remarks—"Addison says, there is not a woman in England; that every one of the British fair has a right to the appellation of Lady." I wondered, in my way from Walsall to Birmingham, to see so many blacksmiths' shops; in many of them one, and sometimes two ladies at work; all with smutty faces, thundering at the anvil. Struck with the novelty, I asked if the ladies in this country shod horses? but was answered, "They are waiters."

A singular though curious & satisfactory hypothesis, respecting the formation of clouds, has lately been published by an anonymous writer. He conceives them to be not merely one continued mass or body of vapor, or mixed gases, but interspersed with bubbles of hydrogen gases. It is known that clouds consist almost entirely of these gases. To illustrate his opinion, he therefore took a bladder full of oxygen and hydrogen gases combined, in the proportion of 86 parts of the former to 14 of the latter, and immersed the stop cock in soap suds. He then inflated the bubble that hung to it, by compressing the bladder, and on passing an electric spark through it, it detonated with a loud report, and the two mixed gases were converted into water, equal in weight to the decomposed gases.

From this experiment he adduces the argument, that though it frequently thunders without apparent rain, yet it is only when the thunder is at a distance; and that invariably, as a clap of thunder is heard, rain falls under the cloud, in proportion to the loudness of the report.

ANECDOTE.

"How can you my dear, (said a lady to her husband) prefer punch to wine?" "Because my dear, it is like matrimony—such a charming compound of opposite qualities." "Aye, my lord, I am the weak part, I suppose." "No, my love, you are the sweet with a dash of the acid, and no small portion of the spirit."

A Spanish poet describing his passion says, thinking of his mistress, he fell into a river, where the heat of his passion had such an effect on the water, that it bubbled up and boiled the fish; insomuch that those who came to take him out, were diverted from their object by the delicacy of the fish, which were swimming about ready cooked.

Extract of a letter from Havana, dated April 26, 1818.

"I am happy to inform you that we arrived here on the 24th instant, after a long passage, which was owing to the prevalence of westerly winds. We were boarded whilst in sight of the Moro Castle, by a Carthaginian privateer ship, and had seven Spanish prisoners put on board of us, when we were permitted to proceed without molestation. The prisoners were landed on our arrival.

"With respect to the markets, it is impossible to give you precise information, not having been permitted to go on shore until late yesterday.—Rice, I think will bring at least $9 50; flour, hams, lard, and shops, I think will pay something, but it is impossible, to say what, until we have had an opportunity to try the market's pork is very plenty, and will not clear cost.

"Freights are very low, and difficult to obtain. Molasses has been taken at $3 per hhd. to Boston. The produce of the island is high, and in all probability would not fetch cost if shipped to the U. States.

Bills of exchange can hardly be obtained on any part of the U. States, at any rate; and the little respect paid to neutral vessels by the Carthaginian privateers, renders remittance somewhat unsafe. I yesterday saw the supercargo of a Hamburg ship which had been captured by them, with a cargo of sugar, and he landed at Matanzas. As yet I have not heard of their molesting any Americans, and it is to be hoped they will not.

Markets.—Coffee, 18 a 20 cents; molasses, 10 rials per keg; sugar, white, 9 a 50; do brown, 7 a 7 50; do muscovado, 6 50 a 7 25; hides, 2 a 2 50 each; beef, prime, No. 1, 14 a 15; do half b's, mess, 9 a 10; rice, 9 50; flour 19 a 20; butter, no sale; cheese, do; hams, 24 cents; sporn, candles, 62 a 67; soap, castile, 26 a 28."

From the New-York Gazette, May 15.

LATEST NEWS.
Capt. Dowdall, of the ship Chauncy, brings later news from London by three days than heretofore received. He has favored the editors of the Gazette with Bristol papers of the 2d, and London papers of the 1st ult. A little change in the markets is all that is interesting to us, which we notice.

Paris papers of the 28th of March mention that his majesty's ministers would on that day make a very important communication to the two Chambers. These communications were supposed to refer to the final settlement of the claims of foreign creditors on France.

The Chamber of Deputies has passed the project of a law on the customs. The law for abolishing the slave trade passed on the same day by a majority of 117 to 19.

The Times mentions that a favorable motion took place in the Lords the preceding day. The 3 per cent. consols, after opening at 78 1-4 5-8, rose, for a few bargains, to 79 3-8, and closed at 79 1-2. Very considerable purchases were made in the course of the day. The secret springs which operate upon this machine are, in general, unknown to plain honest men—they are frequently acted upon by hands, or respond to touches, which have but little connexion with the general interests of the nation. The cause assigned for the above named rise, was a report that the affair of reclamations between the French government and the allies had been satisfactorily terminated.

The Bristol paper of April 2 remarks, "Barley continues to advance, but other sorts of grain remain unaltered with respect to price. Spanish wool is more inquired for. Refined goods continue in tolerable demand. American flour 55 to 58; rice 48 to 50."

A London paper of March 31 remarks, "The duty upon rice the 15th inst. does not appear to affect either the demand for it or to advance its price, as the market to-day was exceedingly heavy; and Carolina is reported to have sold at 46. Some large sales of fine goods have been made for Russia, and the demand for them continues. Corn is generally on the rise, and in brisk demand."

New York, May 15.

LATEST FROM ENGLAND.
By the ship Chauncy, Capt. Dowdall in 42 days from Bristol, the editors of the Commercial Advertiser have received London papers to the 1st of April, and Bristol to the 3d. We have given below as much as our time will permit.

The Courier of the 30th of March, on the credit of an article received by the Flanders mail, gives the following as the conditions on which the Allied Powers consent to quit the French territory. "They withdraw their troops, but not the surveillance. All the smaller contingents go home, but the four great powers keep each 15,000 men near the French frontier, who, in case of need, will advance upon Paris. The English will be in Belgium, and Brussels the Duke's headquarters. Thus, at the least motion in France, 60,000 chosen men will unite at a certain point [Paris] and the Power of the second order will have a reserve to support the operations of the great Powers. The army of Observation will be paid for by France, which will be a disadvantage, as the money will be spent abroad, whereas, what the French have hitherto paid mostly returns into the hands of Government by the Indirect Taxes."

The late king of Sweden, by his will, dated the 10th of July 1817, has bequeathed to her Majesty, the Queen Dowager, all the money in his private coffers, and the Chateaux in Rosenberg, with its dependencies for life.—The diamonds and other personal property of the late king were left to his present Majesty. The King has offered the whole, together with the diamonds, to the Queen for her life, after which he gives them to the crown.

A treaty between Russia and Sweden has been published, which is a supplement to the treaty of Fredericks-ham, and was concluded on the 10th of September, 1817. Its object is to afford facilities to the trade between Sweden and Finland, and between Norway and the White Sea. It is to continue in force eight years from the 1st January, 1818.

Under a Paris date of March 28th it is stated, that by accounts from Marseilles, of the 18th of March, received by travelers who had arrived from Algiers, the Dey of that Regency died of the plague on the 1st of March; since which period the contagion had penetrated to the Segragio. It is added, that the Dey was succeeded by one of his ministers.

It is stated, that the differences between Spain and Portugal have taken an unfavorable turn in the European Committee sitting at Paris, and appear to threaten an immediate rupture. The British Cabinet is awakened to the subject, and is carrying on an active correspondence with the other great powers to prevent hostilities if possible.

Mr. A'Court, the British minister to the Court of Naples, has presented to the Pope a letter from the Prince Regent. The contents were unknown.

London, April 1.
Consols opened this day at 78 5-8, and at 12 had advanced to 78 3-8 4-8; but the market was in some measure checked by one broker serving the commissioners for the reduction of debt at 78 5-8 consols (money price) which had previously been 78 3-4. At one o'clock consols for the account were 79; and when stocks closed in the evening, consols were 79 1-4—ditto for May 79 5-8.

Dial, March 29.
Yesterday came down from the river and sailed, the schooner George Prevost, Morrison, for Quebec.

Greenock, March 26.
The Regent Stuart Cooper, from this to Charleston, has put back from Wigan Bay, in distress.

Portsmouth, March 29.
Yesterday arrived the Hermann, from Bordeaux for Bremen. On the 11th inst. about 9 leagues to the north of St. Jean de Luz, picked up the capt. and crew of the American brig, Increase, bound to Bilbao. The Increase had been without a rudder eight days, in constant gales, and went on shore on the rocks 4 hours after the crew had left her.

Corn Exchange, Mark-Lane, March 30.—The supply of Wheat this morning being rather small, caused an advance of 2s. per quarter on the prices of this pay week, and sales were brisk at that advance. Barley is 2s. per quarter dearer, having but few arrivals. Beans maintain last Monday's prices, but the demand was not so brisk as last week. Oats are 1s. per quarter lower, the arrivals being large from our own coast. Current price.

English.—Wheat Kent and Essex, 75s a 96; Suffolk, 73s a 94s; Norfolk, 75s a 90s; Rye, 48s a 50; Barley, 54s a 55s; Malt, 60s a 70s; Flour, per sack 75s a 80s; Rapeseed, per last 48l a 50l Foreign, Wheat, Danzig 80s a 95s; Baltic red, Hambro' or Bremen, Brabant 70s a 86s.

Bristol, April 2.
Our corn market has been well supplied this week, and a good business has been effected. Barley continues to advance, but other sorts of grain remain unaltered with respect to price. Spanish Wool is more inquired for, and may be rated rather higher.

Prices Current.—Mus. sugar, 80s a 96s per cwt; coffee, 100s a 115s do. Am. flour 55s a 58s per bbl. Sp. wool, viz. lan-b's 5s 3d a 5s 3d per lb.; Seviolas 5s 3d a 5s 3d; Segovianas 4s 9d a 6s; Leonnesas 5s 9d a 7s; Saxony wool 5s 6d a 9s 3d; Galipoli oil 100l a 120l p. t; turpentine 18s per cwt; Corn rice 48s a 50s per cwt.

Corn Market.—Wheat 76s a 100s per qr.; Barley 46s a 50s; wh. flour 76s a 78s per sack; seconds 69s a 76s.
London, March 31.
The expected duty upon Rice the 31st inst. does not appear to affect either the demand for it, or to advance its price, as the market was to-day exceedingly heavy, and Carolina is reported to have been sold at 46s. There are capturers in town for Bahia cottons, but only 250 bags are to be met with. Corn is generally on the advance, and in brisk demand. The prices of oils are affected by recent arrivals from the South Sea Fishery, which have reduced them 4l. per ton. Spermac. oil is also 6s lower.

Mus. sugar 78 a 96s per cwt; refined do. 108 a 128s do; coffee 100 a 114s do; cotton 15 7 1-2 a 1 1 1-2 per lb; tobacco 7 1-2 a 1s do; tallow 7 4 a 7 6s per cwt; whale oil 42l per ton; G. do. 100l do; turpentine 19s per cwt; rice 47 a 48s do.

Stock in the London Docks.—1516 bbls. 4726 tes. sugar; 15145 puns 113 bbls. rum; 9407 bbls. and tcs. 55133 bbls. and bags coffee.

Stock, April 1, 1817.—15154 bbls. 5432 tes. sugar; 15450 puns. rum; 15738 casks, 55694 bags coffee.
Glasgow, March 27.—A large cargo of Rice is daily expected, for which the holders have refused 42s. and the uncertainty which prevails as to the attachment of the duty on the 5th inst. and the doubt whether or not it may arrive before that day, make it improbable that a sale will be effected before its arrival.

A stated quarterly meeting of the St. Andrews Society will be held at Mrs. McDougall's, on Tuesday the 19th inst. at 7 o'clock.

Absconded,
ON the night of the 16th inst. my negro man JOHN, or JOHN ALLEN, (as he calls himself)—he is well known, having lived with me for several years, and has travelled a good deal with me.
He is a very plausible fellow; about 30 years of age, slender made, and about 5 feet 5 inches high, rather of a yellow complexion, but the complete negro mouth and nose—has a small scar on one of his cheeks—has lately had a sore on his right leg, directly on the shin bone, which leg has the appearance of being much scored at a former period by disease or the small pox. His hat was made and stamped by Rogers of Baltimore.— A reward of 10 dollars will be given if taken in the town or county of Alexandria, 20 if in the county of Washington or Fairfax, 50 if in Baltimore or state of Maryland, and 100 if in Philadelphia or the state of Pennsylvania, and in like proportion if at any other places, with all reasonable charges for bringing him here and securing him in jail.
May 18 JAMES SANDERSON.

Fifty Dollars Reward
WILL be given for the apprehension of negro JOHN, about 19 or 20 years of age, light complexion, and about 5 feet 7 or 8 inches high—his clothing not recollected, but was very indifferent. He was one of a party who broke the jail of this place on the night of the 16th inst. and made his escape. The above reward will be given for his apprehension and for lodging him in any jail so that I get him again. All information to be left with Mr. Godley, at Mr. Legg's tavern, of this place, or to Mr. George Miller, sen. of Washington City.
